SOURCE

1. Jorge Gozalvez, Director General of the Bolivian Police, has stated that the Bolivian Government is considering declaring a state of siege and outlawing the Partido Izquierda Revolucionaria (PIR). Gozalvez has stated that if this step is taken, it will be followed by the deportation of many PIR leaders. In some cases, these PIR leaders are members of Congress who are expected to claim congressional immunity if the state of siege is declared.
2. Gozalvez has further stated that the strong man of the Cabinet will be the Minister of Government, Alfredo Mollinedo, who will be responsible for carrying out the program against the PIR. Mollinedo is said to have confirmed the report of the proposed action by the Bolivian Government.
